

INTERFAITH
CENTER OF NEW YORK

Presents

Strengthening Muslim Families Through Child Welfare Partnerships

A workshop for Muslim community leaders

The workshop seeks to help bridge the gap in culturally responsive child welfare and foster care services for Muslim communities. The workshop will provide information on:

- The definition of child abuse
- How ACS hears about cases and how it investigates & refers families
- Foster parent recruitment and support
- How families can be better supported & how religious leaders can work with ACS

DATES & LOCATIONS

Manhattan- Thursday, 10/9, 12:45pm-5:00pm: Joseph P. Kennedy Community Center, 34 West 134 St. New York, NY 10037 (between Lenox & Fifth Ave)

Bronx- Tuesday, 10/14, 12:45pm-5:00pm: Davidson Community Center, 2038 Davidson Avenue, Bronx, NY 10453

Staten Island-Tuesday, 10/28: 12:45pm-5:00pm: Sauti Yetu Center for African Women & Families, 380-384 Van Duzer Street, 1st Floor
Staten Island, NY 10304

Brooklyn (TBA)

Queens (TBA)

RSVP requested. To sign up, or for questions, email malik@interfaithcenter.org or call (212) 870-3547 Please provide your name, organization, phone and email when you sign up.