Inclusion and Exclusion Through Interfaith Dialogue: Lessons from Crown Heights and the Interfaith Center of New York

with

Dr. Henry Goldschmidt

Director of Education Programs
Interfaith Center of New York

Dr. Goldschmidt draws on his extensive experience to describe what interfaith work really looks like “on the ground.” He also explores how the category of “interfaith” can include but also exclude potential participants in interreligious conversation and conflict resolution. This 40-minute talk concludes with a question-and-answer dialogue with the audience.
