

The Micah Faith Table Immigration Committee

in partnership with

The Refugee Committee of Congregation B'nai Jeshurun

Presents

"Immigrants and Refugees in America and New York: The Political and Moral Landscape Today"

Tuesday, November 15, 2016 6:45 p.m.

Congregation B'nai Jeshurun

270 W. 89th Street

(Between Broadway and West End)

Program will include:

- ◆ Post-election overview by Patrick Young, Esq., CARECEN attorney and Hofstra University immigration law professor, of federal, NYS and NYC immigration/refugee laws and policies and its advocacy implications.
- ◆ Reflections by religiously diverse faith leaders on the moral obligation to promote reform of America's immigration and refugee laws, including Debbie Almontaser, Muslim Community Coalition; Rabbi Marcelo Bronstein, Congregation B'nai Jeshurun; Fr. Mark Hallinan, S.J., Our Lady of Mt. Carmel - St. Benedicta and St. Mary of the Assumption; Daiken Nelson, Sensei, Pamsula Zen Center; and Sunita Viswanath, Sadhana Coalition of Progressive Hindus. Moderator: Rev. Chloe Breyer, Executive Director, Interfaith Center of NY.
- ◆ Overview by Laurie Davidson, Organizing Director of Mayor's Office of Immigrant Affairs, of programs and initiatives that make NYC a refuge for victims of America's broken immigration/refugee system.
