Dear Friends,

Yesterday, a Federal Judge rejected a proposed settlement on police surveillance of Muslim New Yorkers on the grounds that it did not go far enough in protecting free speech and religion. According to Judge Charles Haight, the proposed settlement did “not furnish sufficient protection from potential violations of the constitutional rights of those law-abiding Muslims and believers in Islam who live, move and have their being in this city” (see the New York Times article here). ICNY supports this decision, having worked hard with allies last Spring to garner community input on this settlement. See our own statement on the Handschu/Raza proposed settlement drafted by ICNY’s Iman Boukadoum and submitted to the court last Spring.

In addition, ICNY has gathered religious leaders to offer their feedback to the courts about further reforms on the NYPD’s “Stop and Frisk” policies made possible in a Joint Remedial Process outlined in the Floyd, Davis, and Ligon cases. For more information about how your community or congregation can weigh in on policing reforms pertaining to “Stop and Frisk” practices, click here. Recognizing that accountability and education are inseparable when it comes to improving police-community relations, ICNY is currently working on a police religious diversity training video “Policing in Today’s Multifaith New York” that will be instituted as a regular part of officer training.

While North Dakota is a distance from New York City, ICNY is promoting a call from both Chief Arvol Looking Horse and Episcopal Priest The Rev John Floberg for religious leaders to come to Standing Rock on Nov. 2nd and 3rd to support the men and women who have so courageously risked arrest and injury to protect their rights and the environment against the Dakota Access Pipeline.

You may have read in the New York Post or Daily News that the Mosque of Islamic Brotherhood (MIB) was one of several organizations bilked of huge sums of money by a phony real estate agent. Please consider making a donation to this LaunchGood campaign to help them recover what has been lost.

Finally, on a personal note, I will be embarking on a two-month writing sabbatical from Nov. 18, 2016 until January 31, 2017 to make headway on my doctoral thesis in Christian Ethics at Union Theological Seminary. The focus of my work will be on Christian Peacemaking, Interfaith Work, and Islamophobia. In my absence from the office, ICNY Program Director, Dr. Henry Goldschmidt will be serving as Interim Director.

Best Wishes,

Rev. Chloe Breyer

Psychotherapy and Spirituality Institute Fall 2016 Conference for Clinicians, Counselors, Clergy and the Curious

“Embracing Diversity and Difference: Empathy as a Bridge to the Other”

CEC’s and Student Discounts Available
Keynote Speaker: The Rev. Dr. Pamela Cooper-White
Professor of Psychology and Religion at Union Theological Seminary in New York

Date: Saturday, Nov. 12
Time: 8:30 am - 1:00 pm
Location: Jones Auditorium, Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, 7 W 55th St, New York, NY 10019

How can we allow greater empathy for ourselves and others to emerge in increasingly diverse social contexts? Any form of difference can complicate deeper understanding. Calling on her considerable work in relational psychoanalysis and pastoral psychotherapy, Dr. Pamela Cooper-White will help us confront the clinical challenges of vulnerability and aggression, encouraging us to better know the stranger, both without and within. Social, communal, and spiritual ways of fostering empathy will be explored and imagined in this continuing education workshop. Tickets range from $40-$80. [Click here for more info and to purchase tickets.]

The Micah Faith Table Immigration Committee in partnership with The Refugee Committee of Congregation B'nai Jeshurun Presents

"Immigrants and Refugees in America and New York: The Political and Moral Landscape Today"

Date: Tuesday, Nov. 15
Time: 6:45 pm
Location: Congregation B'nai Jeshurun, 270 W. 89th Street, (Between Broadway and West End)

Speakers will analyze the implications of the November 8th elections for the lives of immigrants, refugees and those aspiring to emigrate to the U.S.; reflect on our moral obligation, rooted in Buddhist, Christian, Hindu, Jewish and Muslim teachings, to advocate adoption of immigration/refugee laws and policies that are just and humane; and inform us about NYC programs and initiatives that make our city a refuge for victims of America's broken immigration system.

Program will include:

- Post-election overview by Patrick Young, Esq., CARECEN attorney and Hofstra University immigration law professor, of federal, NYS and NYC immigration/refugee laws and policies and its advocacy implications.

- Reflections by religiously diverse faith leaders on the moral obligation to promote reform of America’s immigration and refugee laws, including Debbie Almontaser, Muslim Community Coalition; Rabbi Marcelo Bronstein, Congregation B’nai Jeshurun; Fr. Mark Hallinan, S.J., Our Lady of Mt. Carmel - St. Benedicita and St. Mary of the Assumption; Daiken Nelson, Sensei, Pamsula Zen Center; and Sunita Viswanath, Sadhana Coalition of Progressive Hindus. Moderator: Rev. Chloe Breyer, Executive Director, Interfaith Center of NY.

- Laurie Davidson, Organizing Director of Mayor’s Office of Immigrant Affairs, will give an overview of programs and initiatives that make NYC a refuge for victims of America’s broken immigration/refugee system.

We hope you can join us. RSVP to steinmandiane@gmail.com. A flyer for this event is available here.

Location: St. Peter’s Church, 619 Lexington Ave. at 54th Street

All are welcome to join the Baha'i Community of New York City to celebrate the birth of Bahá'u'lláh, the founder of the Bahá'í Faith. The program is a community celebration of prayer, music and stories to honor Bahá'u'lláh’s life, and will be followed by a potluck dinner. Please bring a plate of food to share. If you will be contributing to the potluck in any way, please complete the sign-up form to help the organizers best prepare for the event.

The People’s Tribunal on the Iraq War

Add Your Faith Community’s Testimonies by November 4
On December 1st and 2nd in Washington, D.C., Code Pink is organizing The People’s Tribunal on the Iraq War. It is an effort to “unify the global anti-war/peace movements with other justice movements by uplifting testimonies of the costs of this war—and war itself.” Testimonies about the lies used to invade Iraq and the cost of the invasion and occupation will be shared with the public and with a demand that President Obama respond and convene a Commission on Truth and Accountability.

In order to facilitate this tribunal, Code Pink has put out the call for testimonies about the effects of the Iraq War and it’s lead up. These can be in the form of written reflections, drawings, paintings, poetry or short video and audio recordings.

If this is something you, your faith community or anyone you know would like to participate in, please contact Shailly Barnes and send her your contributions by November 4th.

If these trying times have taught us anything, it is that every voice counts. If you feel moved to testify, please do not hesitate.

National Donor Sabbath

Date: Friday, Nov. 11 through Sunday, Nov. 13

National Donor Sabbath is observed annually on Friday through Sunday two weekends before Thanksgiving (November 11th - 13th, 2016). During this three-day observance, faith leaders, donor families, transplant recipients, and donation and transplantation professionals join forces to increase awareness of the need for lifesaving organ, tissue, and eye donation.

Show compassion and love to your brothers and sisters by joining the New York State Organ, Tissue, and Eye Registry. You can find out more information about the lifesaving gifts passed to others through organ, tissue, and eye donation by visiting www.alliancefordonation.org.

Life After Life in Prison
Life After Life in Prison introduces Carol, Evelyn, Keila and Tracy, who spent anywhere from 17 to 35 years in a New York State maximum security prison. They were photographed by Sara Bennett, a former criminal defense attorney, who wanted to give a face to “long termers.” Bennett’s images offer a glimpse of the women’s dignity, patience and perseverance as they rebuild their lives in the face of societal hurdles. While each of their stories is unique, they illuminate many of the problems inherent in today’s criminal justice system. For more information, contact Victoria at 718.499.6704, ext. 201.

RIKERS, a new documentary from journalist Bill Moyers

RIKERS premieres on Thirteen/WNET in the New York metro area on November 15th at 10 pm. It is the first documentary to focus exclusively on people formerly detained in New York City’s notorious Rikers Island Jail. These riveting personal stories told direct to camera, describe beatings, stabbings and life in solitary confinement. The result is a collective account of a horrific reality beyond the sight of the everyday public. Click here for more info.
