I am originally from Iran, Iraq, Libya, Syria, Somalia, Sudan, or Yemen and I do not have a U.S. passport:

I have...	I am inside the U.S.	I am outside the U.S.
A U.S. visa (for example, a B-1 business visa, a B-2 tourist visa, a K-1 fiancé visa, an E-1 employer-sponsored visa)¹	Do not leave the country unless your visa is expiring. If your visa is set to expire, or you can't meet its conditions, consult an immigration attorney to explore options.	You will not be admitted to the U.S. for the 90-day period set out in the Executive Order, and possibly longer. You may also be questioned extensively at the U.S. border, before being denied admission.²
A U.S. permanent resident card (green card)	Do not leave the country. If you must travel, you may be barred from re-entering the U.S. or questioned extensively at the border regardless of how many years you have had your green card. Consult an immigration attorney before traveling.	You may be barred from re-entering the U.S. for the 90-day period set out in the Executive Order, and possibly longer, or questioned extensively at the border.² Consult an immigration attorney immediately. And, at the border, do NOT sign any form abandoning your permanent residency (Form I-407).
I hold a passport from one of the countries listed above but I am using another country's passport (not U.S.)	Do not leave the country within your allowed period of stay if you need to re-enter later during that same period. Consult an immigration attorney before traveling.	You will not be admitted to the U.S. for the 90-day period set out in the Executive Order, and possibly longer.

THIS IS NOT LEGAL ADVICE – FOR LEGAL ADVICE, CONSULT AN ATTORNEY

¹ However, there is an exception for holders of the following U.S. visas, who will be admitted: diplomatic, NATO, C-2, G-1, G-2, G-3, and G-4 visas.
