

Social Work and Religious Diversity: Faith-Based Perspectives on Trauma and Healing

Bibliography and Resources

This very limited bibliography and resource guide includes published texts, online resources, and organizations focused specifically on faith-based and/or spiritual approaches to trauma and healing. It does not survey the far larger bodies of research and resources on trauma, PTSD, Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), and related topics. For a brief introduction to this much broader field, see the Council on Social Work Education’s statement on “Advanced Social Work Practice in Trauma,” available online at: https://www.cswe.org/getattachment/Publications-and-multimedia/CSWE-Full-Circle-\(1\)/Newsletters-Archive/CSWE-Full-Circle-November-2012/Resources-for-Members/TraumabrochurefinalforWeb.pdf.aspx/Newsletters-Archive/CSWE-Full-Circle-November-2012/Resources-for-Members/TraumabrochurefinalforWeb.pdf.aspx)

Similarly, this bibliography and resource guide does not survey the larger bodies of research and resources on religious diversity and spirituality in social service and mental health care. For introductions to these broader fields, please see the additional bibliographies and guides available online at <https://interfaithcenter.org/social-work-resources>.

With no further ado, here are some resources on faith-based and/or spiritual approaches to trauma and healing, which we hope will enrich your practice.
